

2010 Ambassador Program Activities

Semester One Activities

An Introduction to Developing an Integrated Plan for Personal Success	Senior Ambassadors will review their One Page Personal Plan and their Personal Vision Summary that they first created in 2009. The review will enable the Ambassadors to generate a new Personal Vision Summary for 2010. It is critical the Ambassadors bring along their plans from 2009 to gain benefit from this one hour session. New Ambassadors will be introduced to the core principles associated with the development of an integrated plan for personal success. An overview of the eight key elements of the plan will be provided with specific focus being on the values aspect of the Personal effectiveness and self awareness element and the Education and learning element, particularly as it integrates with the Career and employment element. As an introduction to this set of personal planning tools, the Ambassadors can expect to have a heightened awareness of the integrated nature of personal success, the importance about being honest in terms of a current self-assessment, and the emergence of some key actions for success that they can focus upon for 2010.	Date Wednesday 24th March 2010 Senior Ambassadors' Review 5.30pm – 6.30pm New Ambassadors Wednesday 24th March 2010 6.30 - 8.30 pm Venue L4 & Law Basement
Developing an Integrated Plan for Personal Success Part Two (New Ambassadors only)	Ambassadors will reflect on the output from An Introduction to Developing an Integrated Plan for Personal Success and update their high level plans. A specific focus will be the development of a draft Personal Vision Summary, a short statement that individually outlines their Desired future, their Personal values, Personal purpose and their focus for the following 12 month (or remainder of the calendar year) period.	Date Wednesday 14th April 2010 5.30pm – 7.30pm Venue L3 & Law Basement
Ambassador Project Meeting Part 1	Ambassadors will generate a number of potential projects for completion throughout 2010. The projects will be in the context of enhancing the student to student experience, the student to faculty	Date Wednesday 28th April 2010 6 pm – 8 pm Venue

	experience and/or the faculty to community engagement. The purpose of the projects is to provide the Ambassadors with a practical, hands on and community enhancing experience that will benefit themselves, their careers, the law faculty and the broader community. At the conclusion of the workshop Ambassadors will have identified a number of worthwhile projects and teams will have been allocated to the projects.	L4 & Law Basement
Ambassador Project Meeting Part 2	Progressing from the Ambassador Project Meeting Part 1, the Ambassadors will work together in teams of between 4 and 8 Ambassadors. Leaders for the teams will have been selected and/or identified prior to this workshop. The Ambassadors will use the OTM High Performing Teams Model and the One Page Project Manager to 'launch' their projects. This will be a hands on workshop and it will be useful if each team has access to a laptop. At the conclusion of this workshop the Ambassadors will have clarified what they are trying to achieve and will have commenced developing a One Page Project Plan for their project.	Date Wednesday 5th May 2010 6 pm – 8 pm Venue L4 & Law Basement
